

David Anselm Irving

PO Box 467 / 87 Sweet Road

Lincoln, Maine 04457

(207) 944-9066

david@shelterwoodmaine.com

EDUCATION

University of Maine • Orono, Maine

BS Forestry, BS Wildlife Management.

Graduated Magna cum Laude and Xi Sigma Pi

Sept 1991 - December 1996

CERTIFICATION and ACTIVITIES

Maine Licensed Professional Forester 3249

Maine Forest Service Stewardship Forester

Training: Log Scale Technique, Land Management Skills, Public Relations, Negotiation, and Right of Way Easement Legality

Member: Society of American Foresters and Quality Deer Management Association

April 1998 – Present

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1 Forest Consultant • Shelterwood Forest Solutions, Inc.

September 2003 – Present

- Assisting small and large landowners with timber and wildlife management projects throughout Maine.
- Includes forest management planning, timber sale preparation & supervision, client representation, timber valuation analysis, forest growth modeling, and forest product marketing.
- Currently working with several clients to implement woodcock habitat management projects with assistance from NRCS.
- Client List: Maine IF&W, Wagner Forest Management, American Forest Management, HC Haynes, Hammond Ridge Development Corp., Barter Lumber Company, Town of Lakeville, and more than 40 family forests across Maine.
- Maintained database of all clients using Arcview. Collection of all field data using GPS.

2 Utility Arborist • Environmental Consultants, Inc. • Bourbon, Missouri

April 2001 – January 2003

Assisted Crawford Electric Cooperative in vegetation management along electric easements

- Planned tree management services along electric distribution circuits in rural and residential settings.
- Discussed and negotiated tree services with landowners within the utility easement.
- Audited contracted tree services & assisted revision of service contract, planning procedures, and management specs.

3 Forester • Huber Resources Corporation • Ashland, Maine

April 1998 – March 2001

1998 - 2001 Area forester responsible for management of JM Huber timberland in northern Maine.

- Assisted establishment of management plan for Huber lands according to volume, spatial, and temporal constraints.
- Developed stand prescriptions, completed stand analyses, delineated stands, wetlands, and special habitats, and completed all other related field and administrative tasks for northern area timber activity.
- Performed duties in cooperation with the team of Huber foresters and assisted same foresters with their duties.
- Updated all land activity and prepared all timber activity maps using Arcview
- Selected, Negotiated, and evaluated northern area contract services.
- Monitored quality and quantity of forest product delivery to markets.
- Maintained compliance with environmental / safety regulations.

2000 - 2001 Forester for management of The Nature Conservancy timberland in northwestern Maine.

4 Forest Technician • Maine Bureau of Parks and Lands • Ashland, Maine

January 1997 - March 1998

Multiple use management of public forest in northern Maine.

- Maintained northern region MapInfo GIS and Prepared maps and database information for other foresters.
- Implemented timber prescriptions in cooperation with other foresters.
- Maintained region's recreational infrastructure (hiking trails, campsites, and boat access points).

5 Undergraduate Field Positions

• Georgia Pacific Corporation • Princeton, Maine

Summers 1991-1994

• Boise Cascade Corporation • Rangeley, Maine

Summer and fall 1995

- Georgia Pacific – Participated in forest inventory, CFI establishment, and white-tailed deer census program.
- Boise Cascade – Prepared management plan for high elevation forest and presented plan to managers.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

MS Word & Excel, GIS (Arcview), GPS (Garmin), and Basic Forest Modeling (ForMaine and FlexFIBER).

HOBBIES

Coaching baseball, Canoeing, Fishing, Hunting, Backpacking, and playing most sports involving round balls.

REFERENCES

- 1 Mr. Del Ramey – Former Regional Director, Maine Bureau of Parks and Lands - Phone: (207) 493-3295
- 2 Mr. Matthew Polstein – Hammond Ridge Development Corporation – Phone: (207) 723-3559